About Tracy Tuff

Shelties have always been Tracy's life! Tracy has had shelties for almost 20 years. Lorna & Keith Stolz, Tracy's parents, were the ones responsible for getting her hooked on the breed. The family's first show quality Sheltie was named "Mystic" hence the kennel name they have today.

Tracy has finished over 100 Canadian Champions since 1992 and is a professional All-Breed groomer and handler. The owner and operator of a grooming shop in the town of Devon, Alberta, Canada, called Canine Designs paired with dog shows keeps Tracy very busy! Tracy has had the pleasure of showing many dogs to some wonderful wins, including Winners Dog, Award of Merit at the American National, but her favorite was her own "Bandit", Am & Can Ch Mystic's Undercover Blues, when "Bandit" was Best of Breed at the ASSA National and CSSA National in 2004. "Bandit" was the first Sheltie to ever win both Nationals!

Over the past 15 years, Tracy has had some wonderful mentors and has been very grateful that they have shared their valuable information with her. Tracy enjoys trying new methods and discovering what works best.
